WHITLEY NEILL

ORIGINAL GIN

The exceptional Whitley Neill Original Handcrafted Dry Gin was created by Johnny Neill, a direct descendant of a long line of distillers.

Inspired by his family's sense of adventure, Johnny strove to create his own signature blend of gin: a tribute to his English distilling heritage, and an homage to the enigmatic beauty of his wif e's Sout h African homeland.

The result is Whitley Neill Original Handcrafted Dry Gin; a balanced, distinctive gin that blends classic gin botanicals with cape gooseberry and baobab, inspired by South Africa to create a liquid with a flavour as unique as its heritage.

The flavour profile has rich notes of juniper and citrus, pot pourri and exotic spices.

RHUBARB & GINGER GIN

Essence of rhubarb adds a tart, crisp edge to a smooth English gin base, while ginger extract warms the palate for a full-bodied finish.

Whilst most of Johnny Neill's inspiration for his awardwinning gins comes from his ancestors' intrepid exploits abroad, this Rhubarb & Ginger Gin harks from fond memories made slightly closer to home.

Post-war the Whitley Family was settled in rural England near Daresbury and, as a keen gardener, Johnny's great-grandfather JJ Whitley was called upon to judge the local produce and flower shows. He of course kept his own garden well stocked with exciting flavours, including a flourishing rhubarb patch, which served as Johnny's inspiration for this gin.

Rhubarb & Ginger has become a firm favourite among the Whitley Neill range.

PERSIAN QUINCE GIN

The sweetness of fresh stone fruits appears immediately, gently followed by hints of juniper and citrus zest. The distinctive flavour of quince dominates the palate, giving way to the aroma of apricots and peaches.

A taste for adventure and discovery runs through all eight generations of the Whitley Neill family tree.

So it should come as no surprise that at the turn of the century, Frederick Neill found himself on a voyage through Persia, where he discovered a range of exotic fruit, herbs and spices to add inspiration to the Greenall Whitley family's collection of gin recipes.

While there, he was surprised to discover quince fruits growing in the ancient mountains. And it's the unmistakable sweet tang of Persian quince, which Johnny Neill blended with a heady mix of Persian herbs and spices, which gives Whitley Neill Quince Gin its distinctive, alluring taste.

PARMA VIOLET GIN

All eight generations of the Whitley Neill family tree shared a passion for discovery.

So when John Whitley Neill made his way to Italy in 1960 in order to compete in the Rome Olympic Games, he couldn't resist the opportunity to spend time travelling extensively through the Italian countryside once the games were complete.

Inspired by the flavours his father found there, Johnny Neill created this elegant gin and infused violet flowers as well as lemon peel and sweet orange.

Initial and distinct juniper, coriander and liquorice give way to the bright, fresh, vibrant taste of Scottish raspberries. A perfectly balanced gin with a delicate, fruity profile and a lasting raspberry finish.

Whitley Neill Raspberry Gin evokes Johnny's childhood memories of picking fruit when visiting his mother's Scottish family in Boyndlie, near Fraserburgh, Aberdeenshire, by taking the famous Whitley family gin and introducing a fresh, fruity twist of Scottish raspberries.

LEMONGRASS GIN

Essence of lemongrass adds crisp citrus flavour to a smooth English gin base, whilst the addition of ginger warms the palate for a beautifully complex finish.

A taste for adventure and discovery runs through all eight generations of the Whitley Neill family tree. Alongside Whitley Neill Quince Gin, Whitley Neill Lemongrass & Ginger Gin was inspired by Frederick Neill's voyages. Whilst in Asia he discovered fragrant lemongrass, a popular ingredient lending a citrus note to local delicacies.

His grandfather's discovery inspired Johnny to blend aromatic lemongrass with warming ginger as well as a variety of exotic herbs and spices, giving Whitley Neill Lemongrass & Ginger Gin its distinctive fragrant, citrusy taste.

WHITLEY NEILL

BLOOD ORANGE GIN

Bright, zesty aromas head up a clean, citrus gin. A sweet fruit burst of Sicilian blood oranges offers a smooth crisp taste of the Mediterranean sun.

A passion for discovery runs through all eight generations of the Whitley Neill family tree.

So it's perhaps fitting that while honeymooning in the beautiful Sicilian countryside, Frederick Neill and his new wife fell in love all over again, this time with the vibrant, zesty flavour of Sicilian blood oranges.

Using his finely-honed distilling skills, Johnny Neill strove to create a gin recipe that would evoke the memories of his grandfather's Sicilian honeymoon. He developed Whitley Neill Blood Orange Gin with mixologists and bartenders in mind, and it is a great base for classics such as Negronis, Gimlets and Sours.

ALOE & CUCUMBER GIN

An infusion of fresh, green and earthy cucumber, with succulent Karoo aloe enhancing the overall complexity.

All eight generations of the Whitley Neill family tree shared a taste for discovery, and Johnny Neill is no different.

So it's no surprise that, when travelling with his wife through her native South Africa, Johnny Neill was inspired by the cool flavour of succulent aloe that he found growing in several areas during his explorations. Paired with cucumber, this creates a smooth, fragrant yet well-balanced gin that is perfect for sipping over ice, or for a Gin & Tonic with a twist.

Whilst most of Johnny Neill's inspiration for his awardwinning gins comes from his ancestors' intrepid exploits abroad, this Blackberry Gin harks from fond memories made slightly closer to home.

This gin evokes the flavours of rural England, the taste of fresh plump berries and hints of floral hedgerow conjuring memories of Johnny Neill's childhood spent picking blackberries in the fields and lanes around his grandparents' farm.The finish has a little earthiness alongside the warming spice of cassia.

All eight generations of the Whitley Neill family tree shared a taste for discovery, and Johnny Neill is no different.

So when he travelled through Andalusia with his wife, starting in Seville then on to Cadiz, taking in the West coast with the likes of Tarifa and then into Granada and the Alhambra, it was the citrus groves of Spanish pink grapefruits which drove him to create this fragrant and aromatic handcrafted gin.
